Article I

Members

1. Membership in the Society (hereinafter referred to as the "Centre") shall be open to all persons who are interested in astronomy and there shall be three classes of membership, namely:

(a) Ordinary Members: A person may be elected as an Ordinary Member by the Centre and shall pay an annual fee as hereinafter set forth and shall have full voting privileges.

(b) Student Members: A person may be elected as a Student Member by the Centre upon satisfying the Secretary of the Centre that he or she is a full-time student at a recognized educational establishment. Student Members shall pay an annual fee as hereinafter set forth and shall have full voting privileges.

(c) Life Members: An Ordinary Member or Student Member may become a Life Member upon payment of a fee as hereinafter set forth and Life Membership may also be conferred upon any Ordinary Member by the Centre Council in recognition of meritorious service to the Centre. Life Members shall pay no annual fee and shall have full voting privileges.

2. (a) The fees shall be:

Ordinary Member	$ 10.00 annually
Student Member	$ 5.00 annually
Life Member	$ 150.00

(b) The annual fees shall be due and payable between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of December of each year and shall entitle the person paying the same to membership in the Centre for twelve months commencing the first day of October.

3. Membership in the Centre will also constitute the recipient thereof a member of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, 1968 and entitle him to all the rights and benefits associated therewith.

4. Application for membership shall be made to the Secretary of the Centre who, upon being satisfied himself that all the requirements for membership have been complied with, shall, at the earliest reasonable date submit the name of the applicant to the Centre Council for approval.

Article II

Centre Council

1. The management, control, government and administration of the property and affairs of the Centre shall be vested in and exercised by the Centre Council.
2. The Centre Council shall consist of eight members who shall be elected by the general membership of the Centre. Four of the said Council members shall be the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Centre; the remaining members shall be Members-at-Large.
3. The Centre Council shall have power to fill any vacancy therein by election of any other member of the Centre who shall hold the vacant office for the unexpired time of the officer so replaced.
4. The Centre Council shall, at least once a year, give a full and complete report of its activities at a meeting of the Centre.
5. The Council may pass such bylaws and establish such committees as it shall deem necessary which bylaws shall become effective on the date of their passing but shall cease to be effective in the event of their not being ratified by 50 per cent of the Annual meeting of the Centre.

Article III

Officers

1. The officers of the Centre shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and four Members-at-Large. They shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Centre and shall hold their office for one year.

2. To be eligible for election to any office of the Centre the member must be in good standing and be of the full age of 21 years.

3. The duties of the officers shall be:

- (a) President - to carry out all those duties and functions ordinarily incident to the said office and in particular to call and preside at all regular and special meetings of the Centre and Centre Council and to call special meetings on written request of seven members of the Centre.
- (b) Vice-President - to perform the duties of the President in the event of his absence, resignation or inability to perform his duties.
- (c) Secretary - to carry out all those duties and functions ordinarily incident to that office and in particular to make and maintain accurate records of all proceedings, meetings and transactions of the Centre, Centre Council or other committee of the Centre; to attend to all correspondence of the Centre; to make such reports as are required to the Secretary of The Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, 1968 and to issue membership cards to the members of the Centre.
- (d) Treasurer - to carry out all those duties and functions ordinarily incident to that office and in particular to be responsible for the financial activities of the Centre; to remit to the Treasurer of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, 1968 the appropriate portion of membership fees as is more particularly set out in the bylaws of the said Society and to prepare and submit to each general meeting of the Centre a complete financial statement in respect to the Centre.

(e) Members-at-Large - to perform such functions and serve in such capacities as the President or the Centre Council shall direct so that the objects of the Centre may be more readily achieved.

(f) In addition to the aforementioned officers the Centre Council may select an Honorary President for a period of one year which appointment shall be renewable.
